

Serving the community of Bedhampton by sharing God's love and friendship

Sunday 15th November 2020

Second Sunday before Advent: Matthew: Kingdom Come

Collect

Heavenly Father, whose blessed Son was revealed to destroy the works of the devil and to make us the children of God and heirs of eternal life: grant that we, having this hope, may purify ourselves even as he is pure; that when he shall appear in power and great glory we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Rector's Reflection

This week in our series from the biography of Jesus we call Matthew, Jesus moves from teaching into practice and demonstrating the Kingdom of God in everyday life. At some point faith needs to move into action otherwise faith is dead, we are told by another teacher of the way of Jesus. It's a challenge not to those who question who Jesus is, but to those who claim to be Christian and follow Jesus. At this moment in history many of us are upset that we cannot meet in our beloved Church buildings and that is a very real hurt. However, looking inward to our community is a place of restoration and preparation, it is not the place we are to spend most of our time. It is difficult to serve the community of Bedhampton by sharing God's love and friendship if we don't at some point turn our eyes outwards towards those who need to hear of that love. Now is our time, and thankfully now is the time we get to see Jesus demonstrate how to see his Kingdom come.

The Archbishops' call to prayer

Archbishops Justin Welby and Stephen Cottrell call us to prayer.

“Bearing in mind our primary vocation as the Church of Jesus Christ to pray and to serve, we call upon the Church of England to make this month of lockdown a month of prayer. More than anything else, whatever the nation thinks, we know that we are in the faithful hands of the risen Christ who knows our weaknesses, tiredness and struggles and whose steadfast love endures for ever... During this second lockdown we invite you to fast in a way appropriate to you as well as pray for our nation every Thursday, for its leaders, its health and essential services and all those who suffer. In one of the climactic passages of the New Testament, Paul says to those who follow Christ that their “love must be genuine, that they hate what is evil and hold fast to what is good.” He asks them to “serve the Lord”, exhorting them to “rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.” (See Romans 12.9-12.) None of this is easy. Especially not at the moment. But it is our calling.
