God, our judge and saviour,
teach us to be open to your truth and to trust in your love, that we may live each day with confidence in the salvation which is given through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Rector's Reflection

This week my frontline has included praying for our community's children in online prayer Wednesday morning. That same day I ask a hall full of children; "Who is my hero and my God?" The young ones scream back "Jesus" and we go on to sing 'My Lighthouse'. There is joy in the room and in Heaven. The next day I give up an evening with other governors to support the school as it moves forward. There is less shouting of our Lord's name, but everyone in the room knows I am His and they are grateful. If that is being on the frontline I'll take it. Where do you see God at work, or do you need to develop your frontline and be part of the joy?
