Faith and Prayer

Have you ever been lost or felt lost ?

I have, and was, recently when driving through Portsmouth ; a city I've known for most of my life.

It was a Friday afternoon at around 4pm, on one of the very hot days that we've been having. I was travelling home from a meeting in Old Portsmouth and the traffic was beginning to build up at the top of the High Street. Cleverly (I thought) I would avoid it by turning towards Fratton, but the roads were all getting very busy now and I, who thought I knew most of the city roads, took the wrong turning at Fratton Bridge, and ended up driving in three lanes of solid cars and vans heading somewhere towards the back of All Saint's Church and Commercial Road - - -

I was lost, travelling slowly and unsure of which lane to be in: the sun was bright, the trees on the edge of the road were in full leaf and beautiful, but I was lost. Then, another lane of traffic moved in slowly from the right, forcing me to drive inwards; the car behind me sounded his horn. You can picture it! I felt trapped, and could almost have stopped there, in the middle of the road. I wonder if anyone ever has done ?

But then, a little further on, someone else was obviously in the wrong lane too and a horn was sounded at them. At this point I felt, that although the worry was still there I was sharing this journey with others on the road and the answer was to keep moving forward.

Our Christian teaching shows us that when we feel lost and don't know the way to where we are going, we need to trust in our loving God.

PARISH NEWS

We are all journeying on different routes. But, you know, with God's help we will reach home.

David Adam, a Vicar and a writer of many Celtic books and prayers, reminds us of this :

Alone with none but thee, my God,
I journey on my way :
What need I fear when Thou art near,
O King of night and day ?
More safe I am within Thy hand,
Than if a host did round me stand.

Chaos Support is an independent organisation based in Hampshire that supports individuals with a learning disability to achieve their goals in a variety of ways.

Chaos Support is a day service based in Havant which opened in 2013 with the goal to help young adults with a learning disability or additional needs. The main goal is to help the young adults learn independence, employment and life skills.

The Chaos staff team works hard with the people we support, other professionals, families and supporters to develop a comprehensive understanding of each individual's needs. People using our service can be assured that whatever support they need, whether it is complex health care, support with communication or behavioural needs, personal care, developing independence, or any other, their needs will be met.

Our short-stay respite unit is based in a self-contained flat in Havant. It boasts four uniquely-decorated bedrooms, accessible toilet and shower facilities and its own kitchen and lounge room. The length of each stay is based on need and how each individual sees their stay.

Chaos Support are recruiting for a number of roles and are looking for committed and enthusiastic people who would be interested in joining the team.

NEWS FROM KAMPALA

It is our first week back in Kampala after being in the UK for 6 weeks. We had planned for 4 weeks but things came up and we felt it was important to have a moment of rest as a family before coming back. We had a wonderful time in the UK but it was FULL. I am sure that doesn't surprise you all, but it really was planned with a relaxed vibe but ended up hectic! We slept in 15 different beds whilst we were away so the last week of camping was very much needed. Our time in the UK consisted of time with the extended Muttons, time with the extended Maclays, Chloe's sister's wedding,

Lee Abbey retreat (which was more full on than expected!), visiting friends, Sam running a marathon, meeting friends' new babies, speaking at a few Churches, some work meetings and A LOT of driving! Very thankful for being able to borrow a large car from Chloe's parents whilst in the UK. Zara-Grace was very quick to notice that our car back in Kampala was small compared to Grandpa's!! We were very thankful that the sun was shining when we were in the UK so we could enjoy all the outdoors and playing on the beaches! It was so good for our souls and something we miss so much living in Kampala.

Being back in the UK was precious to reconnect with people but was also a reality check for us that our children are learning to live in-between two totally different worlds and cultures. Zara-Grace loved spending time with people and LOVED all the new experiences, including eating all the satsumas possible! However, she was very keen to go back home and see her friends, her dog and get back to seeing people in the community. Zara-Grace and Arabella have settled back into life very quickly; we just need to work on them sleeping slightly better!!

We have taken a little longer to settle. Chloe had quickly forgotten about the reality of sitting in traffic for an hour and a half to drive 12km to see a friend on her day off, and that was just one way! Prices continue to increase, so food shopping was a shock to the system at the market and the heat and pollution hits you every time you come back! The first week back always feels a bit strange, Kampala is home, but we also don't belong in the same way we belong in the UK. However, in the UK we also feel like strangers in a culture we feel so familiar with. Anyway, just a short reflection for you of our time in the UK and how it feels to live between both Uganda and the UK.

Cycling:

Sam has enjoyed project managing from a distance. Sometimes the Bike Park can feel like you are a firefighter and just dealing with issues every day, so having some time out and allocating jobs before travelling to the UK was really helpful. The new team are great and they are good at communicating and keeping Sam up to date every day.

The next few weeks involve getting ready for a team building a playpark at the Bike Park which is incredible. They fundraised for it and are going to make it happen, such an answer to prayer and great steps at the Bike Park.

In other exciting news, two of the young people Sam has been involved with training with the Masaka Cycling Club have been selected to ride in the Junior World Championships in Glasgow in August. We were not sure if they would be selected or visas granted.

Therefore Sam has been asked to go and support them in Glasgow. As we have just been to the UK, we haven't budgeted for Sam to visit again so we are inviting people to sponsor him for flights and transport if they are interested.

Community news:

Chloe was able to rest whilst away. The Musizi Joy Team are wonderful and had everything under control, but the biggest stress is again financial. We are praying for funding to cover staff salaries and employing the team. We have been able to run the sandals training programme and a small tailoring project, successful but time consuming.

Community BBQs continue to be a joy with different communities hosting each month, a highlight for many. We have a lady who has volunteered to run Zumbini Lessons (Mum and Toddler Zumba) which has been a fun activity. It has been great to facilitate but such a new idea to so many mothers and children about self-care and play and encouraging people to use transport money to come again isn't easy.

Please pray for all these activities, the teams running them and for our fundraising.

Thank you so much for all your love, prayers, support and encouragement.

MISSION NEWS

PILGRIMAGE TO THE HOLY LAND

Neville and Nicky have just come back from a McCabe organised tour of the Holy Land. We're writing this now to encourage other people to go too as it was an amazing experience! And, next year, Max and Peter are hoping to lead a group from Bedhampton.

The group we went with was mainly from Norfolk but we soon got to know everyone as they were all very friendly. Each group is allocated a clergyman and also a professional local guide; our guide was brilliant and his knowledge of the bible was encyclopaedic.

The first part of the 10-day tour was spent around Jerusalem. In fact, our hotel was just across the road from the Crusader era walls of the Old City. We went to all the places you'd expect like the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, Via Dolorosa and the Western Wall which were all a short walk away. Then to Bethlehem, the Mount of Olives and the Garden of Gethsemane. There is so much history in that area, religious, archaeological and political that actually you can't see everything.

There was full day out to the south visiting the hilltop fortress of Masada followed by a float in the Dead Sea which was a lot of fun! I say 'a float' because your body is so buoyant in the salty water that it is impossible to swim.

For the second half of the tour, we were based in Tiberias right on the shores of the Sea of Galilee. We were able to swim in the lake and also had a boat trip on it. One of the most moving events was taking Holy Communion on the lakeshore with the gentle waves lapping in front of us.

On the way to Tiberias we stopped at the Jordan baptism site where we renewed our baptismal vows. It was an amazing place as there were hundreds of people there having whole-body immersions. We visited Nazareth and Jericho, Lazarus' tomb, Mount of Beatitudes, Capernaum and so many other places that it is impossible to list them all here.

Even on the last day, on the way to the airport, we spent a few hours in the ruined city of Caesaria which had been built by Herod the Great. We even managed a quick paddle in the Mediterranean!

Overall, the pilgrimage was utterly brilliant: spiritually and historically. Going to the places we all know from the bible was incredible. Also, the hotels were very good and the food was fantastic!

A prayer for July

Loving Father,

July brings long days and summer pleasures, for many, but not for all. Lord, we pray for those who are finding life to be a struggle; for families with no hope of a holiday this year; for parents who don't know how they will feed their children during the upcoming long school break; for those who are lonely, or discouraged, or isolated, or afraid.

Lord, we pray for justice and compassion from those in positions of power and responsibility. And please Lord, show us how to help, how to be part of the solution. May we, as your children, reflect your loving kindness wherever we can. May your Kingdom come on earth, through us.

In Jesus' name. Amen

PARISH NEWS

3rd July: St Thomas the Apostle, confused and doubting

Thomas, one of Jesus' 12 apostles, was an impulsive, confused, honest sceptic. Jesus could understand and work with such a man. Thomas' impulsiveness was evident when Jesus prepared to visit Lazarus in Bethany. It was a dangerous trip to make, because of the Jews, but Thomas urged his fellow disciples: "Let us also go, that we may die with Him." (John 11:16) Instead, Jesus brought Lazarus back to life.

Thomas' confusion is shown in later talks with Jesus. He was not really sure where Jesus was going long-term (John 14:5). But Jesus accepted this confused commitment, and began to untangle it, patiently explaining: "I am going to my Father", and "No one comes unto the Father but by me."

Finally, Thomas' honest scepticism is revealed after the Resurrection, which he flatly refused to believe - unless he could touch the wounds of the risen Jesus. Sure enough, Jesus appears - but instead of scolding him, shows him the wounds. Thomas responds: "My Lord and my God" (John 20 v.26). And so he became the first person to explicitly acknowledge the divinity of Jesus.

Thus, Doubting Thomas' honest doubts, turned to honest faith, have become a reassurance for thousands of men and women across the centuries who also want to follow Jesus, but who require some proof of this amazing event - the Resurrection. In Doubting Thomas' complete affirmation of faith, after meeting the risen, crucified Christ, they can find support for their own faith.

Ancient legends tell how Thomas went on to India as a missionary. There are rumours that Thomas even built a palace for a king's daughter in India, and thus he is the patron saint of architects. It is believed that he was martyred by a spear on 3rd July, 72AD in Mylapore, near Madras. 46 ancient churches in England were dedicated to him.

On Sunday 2nd July

We will be commemorating St Thomas at our morning service with hymns and music. Thomas is the patron saint of judges and architects because of his alleged building work in India.

Our church here in Bedhampton was built in 1086 with two medieval yew trees. The yew tree has been associated with death and the journey of the soul, or thought to be holy and believed to ward off evil spirits.

BACK IN TIME

400 years ago, on 4th July 1623 William Byrd, an English Renaissance composer, died. Regarded as one of the greatest British composers, and best known for his sacred music. Born into a musical and quite wealthy London merchant family, he became a pupil of Thomas Tallis at the Chapel Royal. Byrd became a Roman Catholic in the 1570s, when it was dangerous to do so, but he was so admired by the music-loving Queen Elizabeth that she gave him protection. Even so, he was still fined heavily for refusal to attend Anglican services. His music has received a resurgence of enthusiasm in the past century. Byrd did compose sacred music for Anglican services – two of his pieces were used in the Coronation service this year.

175 years ago, on 7th July 1848, Waterloo railway station in London opened.

150 years ago, on 19th July 1873, British-born Australian explorer William Gosse discovered Ayers Rock and named it in honour of Sir Henry Ayers, the Chief Secretary of South Australia. It is now known as Uluru/Ayers Rock.

75 years ago, on 5th July 1948, the National Health Service (NHS) began operating.

20 years ago, on 27th July 2003, a team from the BBC reported that the Loch Ness monster did not exist.

In June, we have been remembering all those who arrived on the HMT Empire Windrush in June 1948. On TV, we have also been learning of the experiences of some of those people and their families since their arrival. Some have been welcomed whilst others have had less pleasant experiences. These people had been living and working in the UK for decades but had never been provided with the official paperwork, and the Home Office had kept no record of those granted leave to remain. It was calculated that more than 80 had been wrongly deported. The UK Government apologised, and the Home Secretary at the time described the department's performance as "appalling". Let us remember all those who still feel unwelcome.

Wordsearch – St Thomas – 3rd July

On 3rd July the Church remembers St Thomas, also called Doubting Thomas, because he would not believe his fellow disciples' news of the Resurrection. But 'doubt' did not mean that Thomas did not love Jesus! Only a few weeks before, Thomas had urged his fellow disciples to follow Jesus to see Lazarus in Bethany, despite danger from the Jews. "Let us also go, that we may die with him." (John 11:16) Instead, Jesus had brought Lazarus back to life. Thomas was sometimes very confused about just where Jesus was headed. But in John 14:5 Jesus untangled his confused commitment: "I am going to my Father", and "No one comes unto the Father but by me." Finally, after the Resurrection, Jesus appeared to Thomas, showing him the wounds of His crucifixion. Thomas was electrified, and his response immediate: "My Lord and my God" (John 20:26ff). Thus, Doubting Thomas' honest doubts, turned to honest faith, have become a reassurance for thousands of people down the centuries.

Scouting News 1st Bedhampton Scouts

The Beavers have been very busy with coronation craft and some beautiful crowns were made. We have also been on a mini beast hunt which they all loved! An evening of bicycles only resulted in one small plastic cone collision. Both rider and cone survived with no damage. As the term continues we look forward to our sports day, archery evening, water fun and a visit to Pets at Home. Summer Camp is in July at Lyons Copse. Sadly, we said goodbye to Castor (Mel) as she goes off on a year of maternity leave. We wish her all the best and look forward to welcoming her back next year. This now leaves us critically short of leaders so if you think you would like to get involved please get in touch

During May, the Scouts have been learning survival and navigation skills. This culminated with the Scouts all being dropped blindfolded on the Downs and asked to walk to a destination. The good news is that all 18 made it safely to their destination. Excellent navigation skills!

Coming up in the next few weeks is Fraser's cooking competition, rafting and litter pick or possibly helping the Bedhampton Volunteers.

As usual 1st Bedhampton Scouts will be helping at the Bedhampton Summer Show. There will be a Car wash (inside and outside) fundraiser by the Scouts and Cubs on 9th July so start getting your cars really dirty!

Scout Camp is in August so we look forward to a glorious summer!
